

EMAIL POLICY

We are committed to keeping your email address confidential. We not sell, rent, or lease our patient email address list to third parties and will not provide your personal information to any third party individual, government agency, or company at any time unless compelled to do so by law.

We will use your email address solely to provide timely information about the Hutchinson Clinic or your health, or to correspond with you regarding our Patient Portal or patient surveys.

Hutchinson Clinic, PA will maintain the information you send via email in accordance with applicable federal law.